

Powers and Duties of the President. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation and shall have general charge and control of all its business affairs and properties.

The President may sign and execute all authorized bonds, contracts or other obligations in the name of the Corporation. He shall have the general powers and duties of supervision and management usually vested in the office of the president of a corporation. The President shall be ex-officio a member of all standing committees. He shall do and perform such other duties as may, from time to time, be assigned to him the Board of Directors.

Powers and Duties of the Vice President of Finances, Vice President of Operations and Vice President of Administration. The Vice President of Finance oversees capital expenditures, fundraising and other monetary items. The Vice President of Operations oversees game day responsibilities and general upkeep of facilities. The Vice President of Administration performs whatever duties are deemed necessary by the President. In the absence of the President, the senior Vice President may take charge of the meetings of the Board and general membership meetings. Each Vice President shall have such other powers and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors or by the President. In case of the absence or disability of the President, the duties of that office shall be performed by the senior Vice President, who is the Vice President with the most years experience on the Board of Directors, and the taking of any action by any such Vice President in place of the President shall be conclusive evidence of the absence or disability of the President.

Secretary. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of members and directors and all other notices required by law or by these bylaws, and in case of his absence or refusal or neglect to do so, any such notice may be given by any person thereunto directed by the President, or by the directors or members upon whose written request the meeting is called as provided in these bylaws. The Secretary shall record all the proceedings of the meetings of the members and of directors in books provided for that purpose, and he shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors or the President. He shall have custody of the seal of the Corporation and shall affix the same to all instruments requiring it, when authorizing by the Board of Directors or the President, and attest the same. In general, the Secretary shall perform all duties generally incident to the office of the secretary of a corporation, subject to the direction and control of the Board of Directors and the President.

Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have custody of all funds and securities of the Corporation, and he shall keep full and accurate account of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation. He shall deposit all moneys and other valuables in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such depository or depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors.

The Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond, if required by the Board of Directors, in a sum, and with one or more sureties, satisfactory to the Board of Directors, for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office of all books, papers, vouchers, moneys, and other properties of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

The Treasurer shall perform all the duties generally incident to the office of the treasurer of a corporation, subject to the direction and control of the Board of Directors and the President.
